

DESPERATELY SEEKING

■ SEEKING members of the Horgan family who lived on Lafayette St, Traralgon, in the 1960s. We've found some items of Margaret's while renovating and are seeking photos taken in or of the house earlier in its history.

■ SEARCHING for descendants of Richard and Jane Price (nee Drinkwater) who came out from Oxfordshire, England, aboard the Oithona to Portland in 1855. Their children were Joseph, George, Hannah, Sarah, Richard, James, William, Emma, Charles, Hugh, Mary (Polly), Henry and Fred. After spending time at Digby and Hotspur they settled at Milltown, where Richard and his sons started a sawmill. A reunion for descendants is being held.

■ I AM after a copy of the two Alvin Purple films which were released in 2004 or 2005 as a two-disc DVD set by Village Roadshow. It seems to be out of the catalogues and hard to find. If anyone has a copy of this DVD and would be interested in selling it, please send me an email.

■ SEEKING descendants of my father, John Michael Gleeson. He died at 32 of tuberculosis. I was only two years old and do not remember him. He married my mother, Alice Rowbottom, on February 2, 1921. I think it was at Parish Church in Collingwood. They both worked in the boot trade. I am hoping someone may have a photograph of him.

■ SEARCHING for any Glaum or O'Brien family members. They lived in Rae St, North Fitzroy, in the 1950s and '60s. My mother was Agnes May Glaum.
